Come Out Of Her My People: Persecution Begins

Synopsis

The Christian Church of America is under attack. The explosive tinderbox of hatred towards Christians by the immoral majority is beginning to ignite. And the persecution of the saints is the final prophecy that will substantiate the assumption that America is the Great Harlot of Revelation. This 2013 Edition includes the complete Fourth Edition of "Come Out of Her My People", as well as "The Last Enemy of Christ: Paul's Chronology of Christ's Return". "Persecution Begins" provides reasonable evidence that America will soon come under God's judgment. But first she must establish a reputation as the most anti-Christian nation in all of history. The media voices that have led the public to despise Christianity will continue to anger the ungodly citizens until they finally react in violence. Every American Christian needs to be informed and prepared for the fiery trial ahead. There may still be time to escape before the Atheists gain complete control of the nation.

Excerpt 1: ["If the Great Tribulation were to begin during the present generation, the Great Harlot must exist today. It would take at least decades for a single nation to gain the reputations which are listed in Revelation: 1. Trading Capital - Chief Importer 2. Living in Luxury 3. Top Military Force 4. Unfaithful to God 5. Unknown when Revelation was Written 6. A Gathering Place of the Wicked 7. Spreader of Filth throughout the World 8. Melting-Pot of Peoples, Nations, and Tongues

The second reason why the Great Harlot must exist at the onset of the tribulation is the fact that the golden age of commerce described in Revelation Seventeen and Eighteen could not develop within centuries of the One-Third Trumpet Judgments. The destruction of one-third of the people, places, and things on the earth would be far more traumatic than the world wars or mini ice-ages of times past. The One-Third Judgments are the "elephant in room" that proves the events of Revelation are not written in chronological order. Chapters Eight and Nine of Revelation describe the greatest catastrophe since Noah's flood. Once again, the Golden Age of world commerce CANNOT POSSIBLY occur within seven years of this event. Therefore, we must either assume that Mystery Babylon:â €Exists before the beginning of Revelation, and is merely memorialized in chapters 14, 17, and 18.â € Chapters Eight and Nine are describing the judgment of Mystery Babylon. Or else,â € The Book of Revelation covers a period of hundreds, or even thousands, of years. If you believe in a literal interpretation of Revelation, you must choose one of these three options. And if you believe the prophecies of Revelation will be fulfilled in a seven year period, then you can only assume that the Great Harlot exists before the onset of Revelation."]

Excerpt 2: ["The real opposing forces in America are not the Democrats and the Republicans, the conservatives and the liberals, nor are they the elite and the ninety-nine percenters. The battle is between those who fear the Lord and those who do not. The founders of the nation sought to be independent from England, but were pleased to be dependent on God. Christians who have been delivered from sin rejoice in God's law and view freedom as a blessing from God. The New America has been taken captive by sin and will endorse any government that promises them the right to keep sinning. As Jesus said "Whoever sins is a slave to sin". Christians stand amazed that anyone would be willing to give up their privacy - and their freedom - without resistance. The New America is willing to forsake every other freedom for the freedom to sin."]

If you are familiar with scripture, you begin to realize how quickly The Word is coming true in this time. America was the greatest nation ever with freedom for all and a healthy knowledge of God. She has become the greatest nation of sin loving lost souls. She kills more unborn babies than any nation on earth. A president who announces America is not a christian nation and you may wonder when the Constitution will be used as toilet paper. She is asking for the wrath of God and it is very good advice to come out of her. She has lost her soul and it appears she is the harlot of Revelation.

I admit it, I am a pre-tribulationist and believe with all my heart that the Bible teaches it from Genesis to Revelation and not just by words but also by types and shadows. Ex. Where was Ruth who represents the Church during the night of threshing? She was safely tucked by Boaz's feet and he represents Jesus Christ. Why did God HAVE to get Lot out of Sodom before He could destroy it? Lot was righteous (not always right but he knew God and more importantly, God knew Lot!) so he had to get out prior to the fiery destruction coming down. That is just two Old Testament examples. The New Testament makes it so clear that I need so no more. This author actually does not believe in saving grace. I sure hope he never sings Amazing Grace or Blesses Assurance!! He would be singing lie because he doesn't believe it. He believes in works. Perhaps I should be generous enough to say, Grace + works + pain and agony = salvation. I was saved by Grace and Sealed by Grace and Kept by Grace and Protected by Grace. I am His blood-bought Bride and my Bridegroom is not willing for me, His Bride, to suffer the horrible things that are predicted in the Bible for end times. What earthly Bridegroom would even consider such a thing?! Having said all of that: I cannot differ with him about America being in prophecy as he pictures. I think the USA is in for it! We will not get away from the sins we have allowed to go on and on. We will pay for every drop of innocent baby's blood. We will pay for endangering and messing with the intact family, godly structure. We will pay for the alcohol and drug abuse. America is not exempt at all. He has good points about this. So, when he goes off on his Post Trib fantasy, I just skim over and go on to what else he wrote and I hope you will too. It is eye opening for many who think America, the Home of the Free and the Brave will take a mighty fall. Like I tell others, this many can apologize to the rest of us one day!

Good book but I think a little miss use of scripture to create an atmosphere of fear... When the time comes yes America has many sins that we are all going to pay for...for we have all sinned and fall short of the Glory of God. Come out of her in my opinion should be describing the world that Christians are lining in and are apart of...John 17 says to be in the world but not of the world...

This book really had me continuing to press into what God seemingly is about to do. I have gone from pre-trib. To pre-wrath over many years of study...finding in here further insights I'd recommend to you as you remain open to details yet to be unveiled.

Although I am very interested in this topic, it seemed that the author pulled together his homework notes for this book. It never became clear when what persecution would begin, and why, and although he had some observations about the US being the Great Babylon, you had to sift through a lot of notes to find one or two reasons for thinking this way. There was a lot of Scripture quoted in full. I would encourage the author to stick with his message, but make a clear outline of what he really wants to communicate to his readers with this book, because I finished (yes, I did finish it!) with a sense of disappointment and frustration about, what is it he really wants to say? What is the bottom line message here?

Good reading with emphasis on the obvious fact that Christians are being persecuted around the world with lack of support from governments and corrupt media. And the idea that this subject is addressed often in the Bible by way of prophecy should demand our attention to be on watch.....

"Come Out of Her My People: Persecuting Begins" is a must-read for anyone in the Body of Christ. For myself and many others, it has brought about clarity, coherence and understanding of the times we live in. Grab your Bible, get a copy of this book, pray for discernment, and become like the "sons of Issachar, men who understood the times, with knowledge of what Israel should do..."

I'm glad I read this book as it brings me closer to God. It's very easy to get caught up in the difficulties of our everyday life and seem to push God away or forget about him. How foolish can we be. The world is ripe for his return and I hope I am worthy of his kingdom and live to see him come back.
